(HOBOKEN, NJ — June 17, 2016)
Falcon Power presents Formless Threads / Stratified Dimensions, a curated exhibition documenting the uneasy balance between chaos and order. Complex growth is entwined with precarious futures and timeless dimensions in paintings by Tim Daly and Roy Kinzer, and a site-specific installation by KC Tidemand.

The exhibition runs from June 28 – September 10, 2016 (open Tuesday evenings and by appointment), and presents a study into the nature of urban rhythms, complexities, architectural structure and unreal dimensions. The result is art that resonates with personal meaning and historic perspective.

Curated by Roy Kinzer, Formless Threads / Stratified Dimensions offers an opportunity to view each artist's unique insight and practice.

This exhibition is supported by 1414 Grand Street, Hoboken, NJ 07030
